

TOXIC PFAS CHEMICALS PUT OUR HEALTH AT RISK

A middle-aged man with a grey beard and safety goggles is shown in profile, wearing a white lab coat over a light blue shirt. He is holding a test tube with blue liquid in his gloved right hand, looking at it intently. The background is a solid blue color.

SCIENTISTS KNOW THESE FOREVER CHEMICALS
ARE LINKED TO CANCER, A WEAKENED IMMUNE
SYSTEM AND OTHER DISEASES.

LAURIE POHUTSKY LISTENS TO THE EXPERTS

Despite urgent warning from scientists and experts, polluters continue to release toxic PFAS chemicals linked to cancer, a weakened immune system and other diseases into our drinking water – putting our health in jeopardy.¹
